

Internship Curacao If you study Marketing and Communication, Tourism and Leisure, Graphic Design or similar studies, we are looking for you. We have several internship placements available in this sector. For this purpose we are looking for a student who is searching for a fun and educational internship. If you would like to do an internship at a marketing and communication agency, radio station or event management organisation, please read on.

Daily operations marketing agency:

- support marketing activities;
- devising cross-media strategies;
- devising and advising on possible (online) marketing campaigns;
- writing a marketing plan;
- Maintaining contact with both customers;
- administrative work;

Daily work event organisation:

- Project-based support before, during and after the event;
- marketing support;
- administrative matters before the event;
- think along creatively and build the concept and fire;
- executive in construction of the event. In the broadest sense of the word.
- merchandise management;
- Assisting volunteers.

With these companies you have to roll up your sleeves, you get a lot of responsibility and you will learn a lot as a result. You will receive good guidance during your internship. In addition, the internship company is open to the input of the student and internship activities can be discussed. The student is also given the opportunity to work on his/her school assignments. If the student has to write a thesis or conduct research, this can be done in consultation.

Function requirements: We are looking for someone who is flexible and can switch quickly, creative and a handy jack-of-all-trades. In addition, you are critical about your own work and stress-resistant. It is also important that you have a good command of English and Dutch. Knowledge of various machining programs and HootSuite is an advantage, but not a must.

- Training: Mbo or hbo level,
- Period: minimum 3 months
- Traineeship allowance: to be determined
