

Internship at Grenzenlosarbeiten Recruitment, Marketing & Content

Would you like to do an internship at a company that makes an impact? That's possible at Grenzenlosarbeiten! Thanks to your talent, everyone can find their dream job abroad. Our company is growing rapidly, which is why we are looking for enthusiastic interns to join our ambitious team!

Who are we?

Let's introduce ourselves first! We are Grenzenlosarbeiten and we are a young, enthusiastic and motivated team. Together we are committed to inspire people to discover the world. Every day we work with great pleasure and ambition to achieve our mission. We have more than 100.000 social media followers and work with big names such as AirBnb, Zalando, and SIXT.

We are number one on Google for "working abroad" and reach more than one million people every week. That's why we are constantly developing innovative ideas. Our culture is open and informal, but most of all, fun. We work on the basis of Holacracy, in which self-management and self-organisation are very important aspects. Are you going to conquer the international labour market with us?

What are your tasks?

Now, you know who we are! But what will be your tasks at Grenzenlosarbeiten? There are plenty of challenges ahead of you. We are a scale-up in which changes and developments take place continuously. Do you have nice ideas? Be sure to share them with your coworkers and you might be working on your own ideas. In addition, you will have your own responsibilities in various projects, with good guidance from your team.

We want to know more about your talents and interests! Become creative and discover new opportunities. Start your internship with the following tasks:

- Creating and publishing job offers, blogs, Instagram and Facebook posts (Content)
- Optimizing the SEO positions of our online platforms (Marketing)
- Develop campaigns and create various promotional materials (Marketing)
- Answering questions on our social media channels (Marketing)
- Conducting job interviews (Recruitment)

Why Grenzenlosarbeiten?

- Every workday is different
- You can express your voice in meetings
- You will work in an international team
- We offer guidance and growth opportunities
- You get a lot of freedom to organise your own work
- You will get to know various disciplines within the company
- We know you don't enjoy unnecessary administrative tasks ;-)
- You help to conquer the international labour market
- We are an enthusiastic and close team
- Free lunch every Friday and of course a nice afternoon drink to start the weekend!

Would you like to become part of our team? Send your CV and motivation letter today to hr@grenzeloos-werk.nl. Our office in Leeuwarden is only 2 minutes away from the station!